

Croydon Central East Local Community Partnership (LCP)

Community Plan

Introduction

This Community Plan for the Croydon South West Local Community Partnership is a key element of the progressive and exciting partnership work being undertaken through the King's Fund's 'Healthy Communities Together' initiative and the One Croydon Alliance. As well as being 'place-based' with its focus on the Croydon South West locality, it is strengths-based and outcomes-focused. It is also designed to tackle health inequalities* that are being increasingly compounded by the national 'cost of living' crisis.

In Croydon's successful funding application, the work was described as follows:

'We've got a vision to transform how we deliver care and our One Croydon Alliance has been working hard to do this – moving power to local people and communities, focusing on the wider determinants of health and being proactive in preventing ill-health – but we know we need to do more to help reduce local health inequalities.'

'We believe that the strong voluntary and community sector in Croydon is best placed to empower people to improve their wellbeing, and we have seen this in action in the collective local response to the Covid-19 pandemic. We want to build on and develop an even better quality of partnership for our borough. We want One Croydon to be part of a much broader coalition, connected to all sections of our community.'

'We have huge differences in financial inequality and health inequality, so we really need programmes that are locality based to meet the needs of people in different parts of the borough and we are starting to put these in place. Our focus over the first nine months, as we develop our locality approach, will be to hear from people locally and act on what they tell us; to develop a new way of commissioning that brings our budgets together across health and the care; and develop leadership that fully involves the voluntary and community sector as well as the statutory bodies.'

Locality Operating Model - One Croydon Alliance

The ambition for this work is to shift power and authority to local people and localities. The aim (stated in our HCT bid and confirmed with the LVP Board) is to create a new Locality Operating Model for Croydon that engages our local communities in co-producing services and activities that deliver transformational health outcomes. Croydon's localities operating model is designed to support the interdependency of statutory and Voluntary and Community Sector (VCS) staff in bringing about a transformation of health and social care that is underpinned by the empowerment and active engagement of local people in their communities. There are three key elements of the model:

1. Local Community Partnerships (LCPs) that reflect local civil societies and include active citizens, faith and community groups, and VCS organisations
2. Multi-Disciplinary Teams (MDTs) – statutory teams of professionals across health and social care
3. Community Hubs – physical locations or virtual networks facilitating access to joined-up services

The aim is to create an integrated model, with VCS involvement on the MDTs and statutory sector involvement in the LCPs – with all partners interacting and collaborating at the Community Hubs. Community Facilitator posts have been created to develop these integrated working relationships.

The Locality Operating Model was developed as part of the One Croydon Alliance Healthy Communities Together programme and approved by the Shadow Health and Care Board.

Local Community Partnerships

In alignment with One Croydon (Alliance) and as part of the Healthy Communities Together programme, Croydon Voluntary Action (CVA) and Croydon Council have set up six Local Community Partnerships (LCPs): Croydon North East, Croydon North West, Croydon Central East, Croydon Central West, Croydon South East and Croydon South West

<https://cvalive.org.uk/assets/documents/one-alliance-localities-profil> The LCPs hold meetings every quarter to bring active communities into the heart of Croydon's Localities Operating Model. Each LCP has two elected, voluntary Co-Chairs bringing local leadership, knowledge and expertise to the partnership and the emerging Community Plans.

The aims of the Local Community Partnership programme are to:

1. Make the LCPs representative of Croydon's civil society – from the larger charities to grassroots groups and BME organisations, faith communities, active citizens and local residents.
2. Nurture information-sharing, collaborative working and a strengths-based approach in the localities.
3. Put LCPs at the centre of developing local Community Plans that set priorities to inform One Croydon's localities commissioning process

Locality Commissioning Model

One Croydon's Healthy Communities Together work-streams identified a need to collaborate on a new commissioning framework, at both a strategic and locality level. Key to the ambition is that local people and communities set the priorities and opportunities for their areas within Community Plans, which are also informed by data compiled by the Council and NHS, taking a Population Health Management approach. Croydon is transforming its commissioning approach so that Community Plans developed by local people and communities link directly to what is funded across each locality. The model is designed to bring greater transparency and accountability to local commissioning.

This was described in One Croydon's Framework for Commissioning with the VCS (May 2022) as follows:

'The proposal is that the current Local Voluntary Partnership (LVP) and Mental Health Local Voluntary Partnership (MHLVP) funds' grants will be devolved to support locality commissioning intentions where these meet Health & Care Plan priorities.

Where locality commissioning intentions are identified that do not support Health & Care Plan priorities, external funding will be sought. The Locality Commissioning Model is not limited to the LVP and MHLVP funding streams, but will use these to test the concept in readiness for other funding streams as and when they become available.

The responsibility of establishing an outcomes-based grants programme will sit with the Local Community Partnerships. The LCP should deliver locality commissioning intentions and innovation in delivery. The Local Community Partnerships will monitor delivery of the requirements of the grant with the Local Voluntary Partnership Board, maintaining a strategic overview of the impact of the grant programmes across all the localities.'

Croydon South West Local Community Partnership - Co-creating the Community Plan

By June 2023, ten 'Local Community Partnership' events had been held in Croydon South West (which includes Purley, Woodcote, Purley Oaks, Riddlesdown, Sanderstead, Kenley, Coulsdon and Old Coulsdon communities) involving people and communities, including; 107 Voluntary and Community Sector staff from 71 different Voluntary and Community Sector organisations. Many of the phenomenal local assets in the area have been celebrated, the most valuable of which is the local people. A locally owned Community Plan has been initiated with input from 168 individuals living and working in the locality. For notes from previous meetings see the Locality Webpage: [Croydon South West - Local Community Partnership - Croydon Voluntary Action \(cvalive.org.uk\)](http://Croydon South West - Local Community Partnership - Croydon Voluntary Action (cvalive.org.uk))

This Community Plan is live and evolving in the sense that key partners are working on actions that can be taken forward and making recommendations when further resource is needed. Priorities for Croydon South West have been summarised in the table below:
