

Training for all Professionals working with young girls and women

Managing FGM & Health related Cultural Practices

AIMS:

- Recognise the warning signs that a girl is at risk of FGM
- Understanding the nature of appropriate provision needed for the care and support of women affected by FGM in UK
- Knowing how to work with statutory agencies and key professionals to tackle FGM

Learning Outcome:

- Exploring the various health related cultural practices
- Understanding the beliefs and values of those who have experienced cultural practices including FGM
- Understand safeguarding issues around cultural health practices
- Knowing what services are available that tackle harmful cultural health practices.

On completion you will attain Level 3 certificate accredited course by OCN London!

This programme consists of 4 modules

Contact us for booking and more information

T: 020 8688 6000

E: admin@aydacentre.org

Fees negotiable

