

Rape Crisis - South London
Are Looking for
FEMALE BOARD MEMBERS

RASASC is a registered charity dedicated to providing services to female survivors of sexual violence. We run the Rape Crisis National Sexual Violence Helpline, offer face to face and group counselling, an Advocacy Service for survivors going through the Criminal Justice System, a large Prevention Training Programme, Outreach Services working with Domestic Violence and Women involved in Prostitution. We are firmly committed to ending violence against women & girls and raising awareness about the myths surrounding rape. Our service is a very busy women only service with around 60 staff, self-employed workers and volunteers.

We are based in Croydon & have 8-10 meetings a year at the Centre.

We are looking for enthusiastic and committed women to join our friendly team of voluntary trustees to provide professional oversight, excellent governance, strategic leadership and act as ambassadors for the organisation. We are committed to being representative of our society and bringing together those with a variety of skills and experiences to shape what we do and how we work. In line with this, we are particularly keen to hear from people from Black and Asian communities as well as people with disabilities.

If you have skills in the legal profession, human resources, marketing, fundraising, the voluntary or public sector, you are an excellent communicator with leadership skills and are passionate about supporting a growing and dedicated team we would be interested in hearing from you. Experience of charity management would be an advantage.
