FREE e-Learning

about children and families

Anyone living or working in Croydon can access a range of useful courses free from any computer with internet access: from Bullying and E-Safety to Communication and Safeguarding.

'The scenarios used on the courses were helpful as they related to my own work experiences'
Education professional

'I think the elearning courses are brilliant'
Foster Carer

'Fantastic programme'
Voluntary sector worker

'Employers have been impressed with these certificates and in an interview situation they have proven a great asset'
Education professional

Croydon children & families partnership

CROYDON
www.croydon.gov.uk

These courses are important for those working with children and families but are also for parents and carers, young people, or anyone who just wants to learn more about...

- Safeguarding Children
- Bullying
- E-Safety for Parents and Carers
- E-Safety – Risks to Children
- Children's Learning & Development
- Integrated Working

- Effective Communication
- Information Sharing & Data Protection
- Domestic Abuse
- Substance Misuse
- Prejudice and Discrimination
- Common Assessment Framework (Early Help)

Some courses take as little as 20 minutes to complete; they are easy to access, available 24/7, informative – and fun!

Each course includes: a topic overview, case studies, learning games and a quiz, as well as links to current related guidance and information and a personalised certificate is emailed to you on successful completion.

To request access to the courses, please send your name, whether you are a Croydon resident and / or your job title and email address to: integrated.working@croydon.gov.uk and you will be registered.

The Croydon Children and Families Partnership is made up of representatives at the highest level of agencies and organisations working with children and families in the borough. It sets the strategic direction for the services for children in Croydon, monitors performance and promotes partnership working at all levels.