

Croydon Partnership Early Help Delivery Work Programme 2018-20

1. Establish Effective Leadership, Partnership working and Governance (Partnership Early Help Task and Finish group)  Chair: Rob Henderson DCS	2. Establish easy to use online information and advice  Responsible leads: Elaine Clancy (CCG) (represented by Sally Innis) /Michael Fanning (NHS)/ Andrew Brown (VCS)	3. Develop a suite of tools for early help practitioners to use which are strengths based  Responsible leads: Zoe Harris/Patrick Shields (Education)	4. Develop effective and timely processes for sharing information between agencies  Responsible lead: Nicky Arrowsmith (Police)	5. Refresh structures and pathways that support the access to early help  Responsible leads: Rachel Flowers (PH)/ Carolann James	6. Develop a skilled and competent workforce across the partnership  Responsible lead: Di Smith (CSCB) (represented by Maureen Floyd)	7. Develop a joint commissioning framework for early help  Responsible leads: Sarah Warman and Stephen Warren (CCG)
Delivery and accountability of the Partnership's Early Help Strategy and Performance Outcomes Framework Evaluating the impact of our Partnership early help offer using the Early Intervention Foundation Maturity Matrix	Ensuring visibility of services available to children, families and practitioners and how to access them	Developing a multi agency referral form to accommodate referrals to CSC and family solutions service (intensive early help), and a family wellbeing assessment and outcome based plan for early help	Developing clear information sharing agreement (ISA) and ensuring consent is understood and not continually sought at different involvement points during the interventions	Embedding the Early Help approach, Developing and agreeing pathways to support access to early help support services	Developing a joined up and effective working culture, including organisation development between professionals and services	Pooling resources to develop a broader commissioning framework across partner agencies