

TEACHING ESOL?

Twin

Free training for current
ESOL TEACHERS

Supported by
MAYOR OF LONDON

Enhance your ESOL qualifications and career

Two free units of accredited ESOL Teacher Training* to:

- ① build your confidence as a teacher,
- ② help you to adapt materials for different learner levels,
- ③ address issues for lower level learners and those with literacy issues,
- ④ integrate low level technology in your lessons

*Accredited ESOL Teacher Training at Level 3 or Level 5 based on the LRN Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages with the option of completing the Level 3 qualification.

Our Commitment

We will complete a bespoke learning plan to determine your journey on the programme over maximum of 6 months. Course delivery includes an evening and weekend option, an intensive option, a school hours option, and a lower weekly hours option. There will also be one-to-one coaching sessions and targetted learning activities in small groups.

- ! We will provide learning support if you choose to complete the final unit of your Level 3 qualification, or refer you to one of our partners for completing Level 5.

Course eligibility

- Aged 18+
- Existing volunteer or employed (including self-employed) ESOL Practitioners who do not already have:
 - Qualified Teaching Status (QTS),
 - Newly Qualified Teaching status (NQT), or
 - A professional teaching qualification at level 3 or above (DTLLS, CTLLS, PTLLS or Cert Ed 7407)
- Delivering ESOL provision to London learners (those who live or work in London) in a face-to-face context.
