Who we are

LawWorks' Not-For-Profits Programme helps connect volunteer solicitors with small charities and not-for-profit organisations in need of legal advice.

“Very helpful,
knowledgeable,
friendly, and fast”

Free legal advice

Our volunteers can provide advice on most areas of law including intellectual property, employment, property, tax, commercial/contract, insurance, insolvency, data protection, defamation, and company/charity law.

Examples of how our volunteers can help include:

- drafting a contract
- reviewing a lease
- updating a constitution/ articles, or
- clarifying rights in a commercial dispute

The advice is completely free and delivered by volunteer solicitors from some of the country's top legal teams.

We help small charities, voluntary groups, social enterprises, and other not-for-profit organisations who support people in need in England and Wales, and who would otherwise struggle to pay for legal advice. Visit our website for our eligibility criteria and application form.

Free legal resources

Free Talks are short online videos about common legal issues faced by small not-for-profit organisations. The videos are all free to watch and aim to help when making important decisions.

Free Talks are currently available on a range of topics including charity issues, property law, employment law, and lots more.
