

Prevention of Modern Slavery in Croydon

Thursday 12 November 2015
Croydon Conference Centre, Surrey Street, CR0 1RG
09:30 – 13:00
Free half day conference

Develop understanding about the scale and depth of modern slavery and its impact on the victim

Hear about the most recent developments such as the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and the UK Modern Slavery Strategy

Share experiences, consider your own role in identifying and assisting victims and how you may be able to contribute to Croydon's action plan

An important event for local authority practitioners, Police, GPs/NHS staff, UKVI, NGOs, churches, faith & community organisations, third sector and voluntary organisations

In Partnership with:

Chair: Councillor Mark Watson, Croydon Council

Speakers include:

Councillor Tony Newman, Leader, Croydon Council

Kevin Hyland, UK Anti-Slavery Commissioner

Peter Cox, Chair, Croydon Community Against Trafficking

Hannah Stott, Programme Manager, Barnardo's Child Trafficking Advocacy Service

Jeanette Walcott, London South East Human Trafficking Lead, UK Visa & Immigration

Tatiana Jardin, Director, The Human Trafficking Foundation

Chiara Gnoli, The International Organisation for Migration

Roy Millard, Partnership Manager, South East Strategic Partnership for Migration

To reserve a place please email: <mailto:safeguardingchildrentraining@croydon.gov.uk>

Contributors

Croydon
Community
Against Trafficking

Barnardos

Home Office

CROYDON
www.croydon.gov.uk

