

South London Downs Discovery Day

Thursday
25 July 2019
1pm-5pm

Join us at the top of Farthing Downs
Ditches Lane
CR5 1DA

No parking is available at this event

The new National Nature Reserve represents a partnership between Croydon Council and City of London and will cover : Farthing Downs, Happy Valley, Coulsdon, Kenley and Riddlesdown Common, Hawkhurst Wood and the Sanderstead to Whyteleafe Countryside Area.

Join us for a fun afternoon celebrating the launch of the South London Downs National Nature Reserve.

Come along and find out more about the new South London Downs National Nature Reserve, the second largest NNR in London.

There are lots of different free activities throughout the afternoon:

- Public walk at 2pm (1hrs walk, 1mile)
- Family fun including bush crafts and a scavenger hunt
- Wild yoga taster session at 4pm
- Charcoal kiln demonstration and "Meet the sheep"

Please note, there is no parking available onsite. The car park at Farthing Downs will be closed all day. We encourage visitors to come on foot, by public transport or use the free shuttle service which will run between Coulsdon South station and Farthing Downs. There is no need for booking, just turn up on the day.

Email: biodiversity@croydon.gov.uk  @yourcroydon  @yourcroydon

In partnership with:

